A man who have a strong will to do hard work never depends upon fate and opportunities. He believes in his own courage and self doing. In any situation he faces problems and difficulties with boldness. Ultimately he becomes success every where. Self help is the best help. Only fools wait for the postman to bring to them some good news. Only the idles blame fate for their poverty and suffering. A man of action does not depend on chance and fortune. He believes in struggles which alone ensures success. A man who has an iron will to achieve his goal faces difficulties boldly. Failures and defeats are part of life. A man who faces life bravely succeeds. God also helps such a person. God favours the brave who aim high and take the risk. Lives of great men reveal that they achieved greatness through self help, labour and courage.
